COURSE DESCRIPTION:
A basic study in communication theory and its practical application at all levels: intrapersonal (understanding the self), interpersonal (one-to-one relationships and small group interaction), and public speaking. Students examine factors that influence the development of self-concept and interpersonal relationships, participate in problem solving panel discussions, deliver informative and persuasive speeches, and improve their critical listening and thinking skills.

COURSE OUTCOMES AND COMPETENCIES:
The learning outcomes and competencies detailed in this course outline or syllabus meet or exceed the learning outcomes and competencies specified by the Kansas Core Outcomes Groups project for this course as approved by the Kansas Board of Regents.

Kansas Regents Shared Number Course COM 1010

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

1. The competent speaker must complete a minimum of four speeches that include a written assignment, peer review, and requires increasingly rigorous research and must be delivered in front of a live synchronous audience.
   - Incorporate the six functions of communication when evaluating the effectiveness of a speech and interpersonal communication.
   - Critique a speaker’s presentation content and delivery.
   - Develop an extemporaneous delivery while using outlines for the majority of speeches.

2. The competent speaker must be able to compose a message and provide ideas and information suitable to the topic, purpose, and audience.
   - Determine the purpose of oral discourse- speaking to inform, persuade, or entertain.
   - Compose and transmit a message suitable to the topic, purpose, and audience.
   - Compose an introduction, a detailed body with supporting material, utilize transitions, a conclusion, and references in an outline for the majority of speeches.
   - Select suitable organizational patterns.
   - Demonstrate careful choice of words.

3. The competent speaker must be able to transmit the message by using delivery skills suitable to the topic, purpose, and audience.
   - Employ vocal variety in rate, pitch, and intensity.
   - Articulate clearly
   - Employ language appropriate to the designated audience.
   - Demonstrate nonverbal behavior that supports the verbal message.
4. The competent listener must be able to demonstrate literal comprehension.
   - Recognize main ideas.
   - Identify supporting details.
   - Recognize relationships among ideas.
   - Recall ideas and details

5. The competent listener must be able to demonstrate critical comprehension.

Grade:
Final course grades are determined by the total point accumulation of all grades from speeches, audience responses/evaluations, class assignments/activities, quizzes, the mid-term and final, and attendance. Percentages are not rounded. Since this is a speech class, all major speeches must be completed in order to fulfill course requirements. Not doing so will result in failure of the course.

501 – 556 = A
445 – 500 = B
390 – 444 = C
334 – 389 = D
333 & Below = F

The grading scale for speeches:

90% – 100% = A
Student does an outstanding speech. Excellent content, well organized, excellent wording – good eye contact and an energetic delivery – and/or superior accomplishment on the criteria established for that speech.

80% – 89% = B
Speech approaching the qualities of an “A” speech. A good speech, not necessarily any major weaknesses, but not achieving a standard of excellence in any or enough areas to merit an “A”. A good job in meeting most established criteria for that speech.

70% – 79% = C
An acceptable speech. Reasonably clear purpose, adequate support, apparent organization, but may not be entirely clear to the entire audience, some problems in wording or delivery or both; and/or some deficiencies in meeting many of the major criteria established for the speech.

60 – 69% = D
An unclear purpose and serious deficiencies in some and perhaps all areas of content, organization; and/or poor delivery.

59% & Below = F
The student does not give the speech at all or simply demonstrates that there has been no preparation in content or delivery.

Speeches:
The majority of speeches are to be delivered extemporaneously; that is, they are prepared beforehand but wording, although practiced, is determined during the actual speech. When outlines are required, they must be prepared before the speech is given and handed in on the first day of speeches. They count as part of the speech grade and should be done neatly (typed) and thoroughly. All speeches must be delivered when scheduled. Major speeches missed by the student, regardless of cause, must be given when time permits in order for the student to receive a passing grade for the course. The amount of reduced credit for a make-up speech, if any, will depend upon the nature of the absence and is at the discretion of the instructor.
ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:
Daily activities in the classroom are designed to accomplish many of the objectives of the course; therefore, students should attend every class. If a student will be absent, notify the instructor before missing class—this applies to all absences, including LCC sponsored events. If an emergency occurs and it is not possible to notify the instructor prior to class, contact the instructor within the same day of the missed class to discuss the absence. Failure to do so will result in a full letter grade dock on all speeches and zeros on all other assigned work/activities. If a student contacts the instructor and the absence is excused, arrangements can be made to complete the missed work upon return. On presentation days, students will only be excused for officially approved LCC events, a documented illness, or bereavement. Students who make a habit of providing excuses for absences that are not school related will be required to schedule a conference with the instructor and provide written documentation regarding the nature of the absences.

Attendance is taken at the start of class. Students must actively participate in roll call and in-class activities and discussions in order to be counted present. If a student enters the classroom after the instructor has started roll call, they will be counted tardy. 3 tardies will result in 1 unexcused absence. Since attendance and participation are critical, if a student exceeds 6 unexcused absences for Monday/Wednesday/Friday sections or 4 unexcused absences for Tuesday/Thursday sections they may be dropped from the course.

All students will receive a grade for the course after the last day to withdraw for the semester regardless of the number of absences.

Online Attendance:
Online students and hybrid students whose courses meet online during the Add/Drop period must complete the Required Attendance Assignment to certify their attendance in the class. Students who do not complete the assignment during the Add/Drop period will automatically be dropped from the course.

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR:
Disruptive behavior that hinders the learning process is grounds for being dropped from class. The following behaviors are considered disruptive or unacceptable:
- Sleeping
- Using cell phones or other electronic devices not previously approved by the instructor
- Inappropriate language or distracting/inappropriate chatting
- Disrespectful responses and comments to classmates or the instructor
- Interrupting or disrespecting classmates during presentations (please do not enter or leave the room during presentations except for emergencies)

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:
Students who need special assistance should contact the ADA Coordinator by calling the Human Resources office at (620) 421-6700, ext.1230, or visit the Business Office on the main campus.
