Course Description

This course is a study of dyadic communication within interpersonal relationships between friends, family, fellow students, romantic partners, supervisors, and colleagues in the workplace. Emphasis is placed on the role of healthy and meaningful communication in establishing, building, maintaining, and sometimes refashioning personal and/or professional interpersonal relationships. Course content stresses how to become a more effective and competent communicator by exploring personal communication goals, analyzing communication barriers, identifying relational breakdowns in communication, and addressing conflict scenarios in order to deepen a student's understanding of the communication process and improve communication skills.

Communication

All communication concerning this course or college business will be sent to your LCC student email address, unless you are taking a concurrent course and your school district email can be used. Please check your email on a regular basis.

Out-of-Class Student Work Expectations

Students should expect to spend a minimum of two hours on out-of-class student work for every credit hour of their class.

Students with Disabilities

If you have problems accessing any material in this course due to a disability, please notify your instructor immediately and steps will be taken to address your needs. You may also contact the ADA Coordinator, by calling the Student Success Center at (620) 820-1182, or by visiting the Student Success Center on the Main Campus. Services for LCC students who have a documented disability from a certified professional are coordinated through the ADA Coordinator in the Student Success Center on the Main Campus in Parsons.

Continuity of Instruction

In the event of a major campus emergency, course requirements, deadlines and grading percentages are subject to change when necessitated by revised course delivery, semester calendar or other circumstances. Information about changes in the course can be obtained at the RedZone course web page or by contacting your instructor for the course. If the course is not able to meet face-to-face, students should immediately log onto RedZone and read any announcements and/or alternative assignment. Students are also encouraged to continue the readings and other assignments as outlined on the syllabus. Students must adhere to any emergency operations plan created by the college for that incident.

Final Exam Schedule

Final examinations will be given according to the schedule of examinations available each semester. All Students are expected to take their final during the scheduled times. Students who have more than three finals scheduled in one day need to contact the Vice President of Academic Affairs.
