

Follow these dates to ensure your aid will be ready when classes begin. You can track your financial aid file progress on the RedZone. Also, it is your responsibility to check your LCC email for college correspondence.

Fall Semester:

- March 1st: Last day for graduating high school seniors to complete the online scholarship form for academic and Foundation scholarships.
- April 1st: Suggested date to complete the FAFSA to get your file complete before classes begin.
- July 1st: Must have your financial aid file complete to be eligible* to charge books for the Fall semester. Your file is complete when you receive an award letter. *Eligibility to charge your books depends upon the amount of your award.
- 1st Day of classes: Must complete online scholarship form for preference for Fall semester.
- Last Day to drop for full refund: Last day to change your major for the Fall semester.
- 1st Friday in November: Last day to turn in all required forms and documents to complete financial aid file for Fall semester/Fall disbursement. Students requesting a loan must complete all three steps of the Direct Student Loan Process.
- 2nd Friday in November: Last day to turn in appeal form and degree audit for the Fall semester/Fall disbursement. If the appeal form for Fall aid is not turned in today, you will not be eligible for federal financial aid for the Fall semester.

Spring Semester:

- December 15th: Must have your financial aid file complete to be eligible* to charge books for the Spring semester. Your file is complete when you receive an award letter. *Eligibility to charge your books depends upon the amount of your award.
- 1st Day of classes: Must complete online scholarship form for preference for Spring semester.
- Last Day for full refund: Last day to change your major for the Spring semester.
- 1st Friday in April: Last day to turn in all required forms and documents to complete financial aid file for Spring semester/previous Fall semester/Spring disbursement. Students requesting a loan must complete all four steps of the Direct Student Loan Process.
- 2nd Friday in April: Last day to turn in appeal form and degree audit for the Spring semester. If the appeal form for Spring aid is not turned in today, you will not be eligible for federal financial aid for the Spring semester.

Summer Semester: (For Summer financial aid, you must complete the Summer Financial Aid Application on our website.)

- Last Friday in May: Must have your financial aid file complete to be eligible* to charge books for the Summer semester. Your file is complete when you receive an award letter. *Eligibility to charge your books depends upon the amount of your award.
- 1st Day of classes: Must complete online scholarship form for preference for Summer semester.
- Last Day for full refund: Last day to change your major for the Summer semester.
- 1st day of July classes: Last day to turn in all required forms to complete financial aid file for Summer semester/Summer disbursement. Students requesting a loan must complete all four steps of the Direct Student Loan Process. Last day to turn in appeal form and degree audit for the Summer semester/previous Spring semester.

Scholarships are awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis due to limited funds.