GENERAL AUCTION RULES

1. LCC Foundation and Alumni Association (sponsors) have endeavored to correctly catalog and describe the items and packages to be auctioned. The items and packages are sold “as is” and the sponsors neither warrant nor represent, and shall in no event be responsible for the correctness of description, genuineness, authorship, provenance, or condition of items or packages. No statement contained in the catalog or made orally at the sale or elsewhere shall be deemed to be such a warranty, representation, or assumption of liability.
2. The Auction Director is Lindi Forbes.
3. Auction items and packages not removed the night of the auction will be stored at the buyer’s risk. Shipping arrangements are the responsibility of the buyer.
4. Some auction items and packages may have restrictions and instructions. Adherence to restriction and instructions are the responsibility of the buyer.
5. Payment may be made after an item is purchased or items may be accumulated throughout the evening and paid for at final check out.
6. Payment may be made with cash, check, Visa, or MasterCard at the check-out table. A charge account may be set up with approval of the Auction Director. Receipts will be given for all purchases.
7. Please make checks payable to LCC Foundation.
8. All sales are final and there will be no exchanges or refunds.
9. All purchased items shall be removed from the building the evening of the auction unless other arrangements are approved by the Auction Director.
10. For certificate items, successful bidders may pick up their certificates at the check-out table.
11. Unless otherwise specified all items and services must be used by December 31, 2025.
12. All statements of value are furnished by the contributors.
13. In accordance with the IRS Code, the amount a buyer pays in excess of the stated value is considered to be a charitable contribution.
14. The value of the evening’s entertainment and food is equal to the price of admission.
15. Please carefully check envelopes containing gift certificates before leaving and report any discrepancies to the Auction Director.
16. Wines and spirits must remain sealed on premises. No partial bottles can leave the VFW. Must be 21 years old or older to participate.
17. The State of Kansas requires us to charge sales tax at our charity auction. Upon check-out, you will be either paying tax on the value of the item or on the sale price of the item, whichever is the lowest.

SILENT AUCTION RULES

Times are approximate.

1. The Silent Auction begins at 6:30 p.m. and ends at 8:00 p.m.
2. A bid sheet is displayed with each item. To bid, write your bid number on the line next to your bid amount.
3. The person whose bid number appears opposite the highest bid at the time the Silent Auction closes purchases the item.
4. Winning bidders will be posted as it closes. Winning bidders not present will be notified and may pick up and pay for their items at the LCC Foundation Office, in the Cardinal Event Center, 1306 Main, Parsons, Kansas.
5. The auction director will have final authority on all silent auction sales.

LIVE AUCTION RULES

Times are approximate.

1. The Live Auction begins at 7:30 p.m. and continues until all items are sold.
2. The clerks will record the successful bidders number, the item number, and a description of the item.
3. The Auctioneer will have final authority on all Live Auction sales.
4. The Auctioneers are Cody Ross, Bud Armstrong, and Sam Elmore.
