

Press Release

Contact Bethany Kendrick
Director Public Relations
Labette Community College
620-820-1280

LCC's PBL Earns Top Awards at State

Parsons, KS- The Labette Community College Phi Beta Lambda students attended the Kansas State Conference, March 1-2. They earned spots as top finishers, securing a trip to compete at the National Leadership Conference in Nashville, TN in June.

The students competed against approximately 80 students from ten other 2 and 4-year schools. Students were also able to engage in leadership techniques during breakout sessions which they learned about from speakers during the conference. LCC students in attendance were Faith Gerkin, Logan Morgan, Paul Schibi and Ben Thompson.

Faith Gerkin, of Douglas, Kansas placed 2nd in Macroeconomics, Microeconomics, and Personal Finance. Ben Thompson, from Parsons, earned 2nd place in both Project Management and received Who's Who in Kansas Phi Beta Lambda.

The LCC Chapter was recognized during the awards ceremony for 1st Place collecting the most money for the Dimes to Dollars Competition for March of Dimes.

Cathy Kibler, PBL advisor said, "These students represented LCC very well and I am so proud of their accomplishments. These students will be competing at the National Leadership Conference in Nashville, Tennessee in June

Cathy Kibler, instructor of Accounting and Business at LCC and Elaine Guy, print shop assistant serve at the advisors for LCC's PBL chapter.