LCC Library to Host Author's Night

Parsons, KS- The Labette Community College Library will host an Authors Night, for the three LCC employees who have recently published books.

Tim Miller, LCC History professor, wrote a book about the history of barbeque, Barbeque, A History. David Beach, LCC math professor, wrote a book about Ledore, KS titled How did the Whiskey go Down at Ladore?, while retired employee Tony Rabig wrote a book titled The Other Iron River and Other Stories. Rabig was the former director of the library and he also worked in the IT department before retiring. The three authors will discuss their books, sell and sign copies that evening.

The Authors Night is free and the public is welcome to attend the event beginning at 6:30pm on Monday, October 20. The event will be in the LCC Library, the first floor of the main building. Refreshments will be served.
