LCC Hosts Community Cinema

Parsons, Kansas-- Labette Community College will be hosting a Community Cinema A Path Appears. This film investigates young women in America forced into a life of prostitution and the innovative programs that have evolved to achieve remarkable results in empowering their lives.

From the creative team that brought the groundbreaking Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide, A Path Appears investigates the troubling situations about domestic slavery, teen pregnancy and poverty surrounding prostitution.

A free preview screening of A Path Appears will be held Monday, January 26 at 6:30pm in the Labette Community College Thiebaud Theatre. Admission is free and the event is open to the public.

The film screening will be followed by a panel discussion with a guest speaker.

A Path Appears, is a film that premieres on Independent Lens on PBS on Monday, January 26 at 9pm. For more information, visit communitycinema.org or contact Kalynn Amundson at 620-820-1138.
